

Hvad tænker du, når du hører ordet 'romantik' eller
'at være romantisk'?

What do you think of the word
'romance' or 'being romantic'?

Hvordan kan man være romantisk i dag uden at være pinlig eller gammeldags?

How can you be romantic today without being embarrassing or old-fashioned?

Hvad er forskellen på at være romantisk og bare venlig?

What is the difference between being romantic and just being kind?

Hvorfor bliver andre glade,
når man holder døren for dem
eller giver dem blomster?

Why are others happy when you hold the door for them or give them flowers?

Hvilket kompliment ville
du blive glad for at få?

What compliment would make you happy to hear?

Har du prøvet at få et kompliment?
Hvem gav dig det?

Have you tried to get a compliment?
Who gave it to you?

Hvilke symboler på
kærlighed kender du?

What symbols of love do you know?

Hvilken type ord benyttes oftest, når man giver en anden et kompliment?

What type of words are most often used when giving a compliment to someone else?

Skal du skrive et Valentinskort til nogen i år?

Are you writing a Valentine's card to someone this year?

Hvad ville du gerne have, at der stod i et Valentins Dag-kort til dig?
Og hvem skulle det være fra?

What would you want a Valentine's Day card to say to you?
And who should it be from?

Hvis du skulle invitere på middag,
hvad ville du så forberede?

If you were inviting someone special over for dinner, what would you prepare?

Hvordan flirter man?

How do you flirt?

The logo features the words "Small Talk" in a dark red, cursive script font. The word "Small" is positioned above "Talk". A small registered trademark symbol (®) is located to the upper right of the word "Small". To the right of "Talk", the words "BIG QUESTIONS" are written in a bold, green, sans-serif, all-caps font. The entire logo is contained within a white speech bubble shape with a tail pointing towards the bottom right, set against a solid red background.

Small[®]
Talk BIG QUESTIONS